for criticising the action of the United States senate in reacting the bill to endergo to powers and duties of the department of agriculture. Be turned his attention to it in its which he denounced as injurious to the producer and consumer alike to an extent unparalleled in the world's history. On the tariff question he said. Decliration of the purposes of our order demands protocition for the weak and restraint upon the strong Equitable tariff legislation is an issue second to none in this direction and to accomplish any thing we must use our undivided influence and organized power in demanding a reduction of the highly protected industries to correspond with the protection spraculture is "occiting, or else an increase of protection to agriculture that shall be equitable and just to all conserned. The annual convention of the l'armers' Congress of the United States also met in this city. The roil cill howed that thirty states were represented.

A memorial to congress praving that the saunce of menthly crap reports by the department of agriculturabe discontinued on the ground that the only result was to matched the markets of the world led to a long discussion Smally a substitute was adopted in favor of memorializing congress so to merease the appropriation for this purpose as to enable the department of agriculture to gather ac curate data.

the department of agriculture to gather accurate data

A memorial was adopted asking congress to pass laws making the cental the standard for neessurement of grams instead of the bushel, and providing for the sale of liquids by weight instead of measure. Camilton A Hill of Boston was re elected secretary and treasurer. Much discussion was evoked by a resolution offered by the Portland Ogn, board of trade, to memorial ize congress in advocacy of ample appropriations for improvement of the country's principal rivers, harbors and waterways and especially that important work already begin be not stopped for want of funds, thereby incurring waste, delay and ultimate increased cost of improvement. The resolution was adopted Col. McCraken of Portland, spake in behalf of the varied in increase of the Facilic coast, particularly the necessity for improvement of the Columbia river.

THE MORNING OREGONIAN. FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1888.

are doing the liveliest husting. The admission of the territory is the chief spring of action. The first work to which the leasers are devoling themselves is the selection of the delegates to the constitutional colvention. These plains are computatively small indeed they are nearly as small as the office. Of delegate to congress, but it furnishes unlimited opportunities for talking and the man who doesn't think he can thus talk himself into further office is the man who will probably say he doesn't care to go Most of the delegates will be lawyers. It is probable the convention will be composed of as many members as now compose the legas lature namely thirty six and of this man bet welve will be efected from the council districts and twenty four from the districts represented in the house. Excepting to avoid leatures which experience have proven not good these gentlemen will only follow precedents ind down in other states. There is one exception, however and the great men who will compose the convention should study it very carefully. That is, the roblem of priority of water rights in agricultural districts where irrighton is carried on and some imitation of the rates to be charged by it rights in the state stretch is protecting arm Legood deal further than it ought to. There is plenty of good material in this turnitory, but they be selected? Only good men should be delegates. There can not be too much solution is might an observe dismining multi an absence of functional in this unritory, but they do selected? Only good men should be delegates. There can not be too much solution as should be adared on its my with every possible advantage this usually mean inguity an absence of function pair. The

But the really line work going on is the organization of the republican party. The efforts to organizat all have relation to the composition of the first state legislature. The state once prepared it will be easy work to arrange numor detail after the men who are to be I inited states senators are assured of success. Not that the first senators will be such great fellows after all for the tiggest man in the state of Washington will be the first governor. In not towns of the territory list of the voters have been prepared together with their pointed preference. It this systematic work is continued all over the territory it will prove a valuable auritary to the work of organization. Primary elections will use be conducted quite so loosely and the detailed information this derive is all enable the really big box ses to act with precession.

Col I rank J Parker the ubiquitous dem ocratic statesman of Walla Walla tells a good story on himself. Thomas Guinean the genual proprictor of the Esmond bottl in Portland is responsible for a part of it. Recalls Col. 2 trker after sleeping in the P., mond returned botal without having taken with him that very unjecte but very useful article known as his in his shirt. Of course its proportions were lineral and its quality and general charucter shove reproach. Fle colonel discovered his loss after he reached home and he in idea mental note of the fact and resolved to usk Mr. Guinean to restore his role de mut. At his sit that is what the colonel called it. He was in Pars when he attended the London exposition. The next time he went be Portland he explained his loss to Mr. Guinean and of course that gentleman immediately loves tigated mafter with the resultihist he good appeared with a neath tied parcel which it said was the colonel single shirt. Thrusting it into his saidhel he thought no more about it until several days afterwards, when his better half said.

Colonel, what was in that packabe in your satebel?

Phat is that shirt I left in the I would It is is it?

And loce "

Great heavens," Late!

And heavens, "Late!"

And heavens, "Late!"

What has be to do with it?

What has be to do with it?

Then the coloned explained things as well as he could and meditated whether he would shoot Mr. Gumean in cold blood or bleed him to death by degrees. When he next saw Mr. Guinean that gentleman protested in his nost exquestle manner that the night clerk had given the package to him. The night clerk blamed the hall boy the hall boy blamed a chambermaid, and that particular chambermaid it appeared, bad gone to the country on a visit. In the mean time the colored tried to explain why the democratis had been thrushed so uninered fully in this territory at the late election, and had cooled off before the above of planations had been made. It secretly bleves however that the whole after was a put up job.

It m to close ranks stand irms and at any hazard and in any despite to maintain the integrity and the supremacy of the democratic party in the South. Let us do this and the essential things may be saved to us. If we divide my shall fose everything.

If we can be instrumental in restoring the grand old fex rebell party to the place from which it has fallen and in clothing it ugain with the power of which it his been so wan tonly stripped we shall therein have worked the sum of our curthly ambition. If this may not be—if the wounds from which the party suffers are mortal—then we shall be content to take our place with the 'old guard' of democracy which may die but which will never surrender!

the much prized Gamsbort for long tult of hair from the back of the winter pelt of the chamors requires to be a man of from muscles cool head unerring eye and a courage that must often be prepared to face terrible odds to avoid the danger of having to meet others much worse. Without the power of undergoing fabgue and privations it is vain his attempting to become an adept in this sport. And one of the very charms of the Gams lagd lies in the knowledge that he cannot obtain his success by any kind of sdventlinous advantages. Neither man nor dog can be of any use to him. He must rely entirely upon himself and if once he gets troubled with a dread of bunger or cold or abyss or or everage or supporery glistade he may much better try his fortune at humbler game. In short chamois hunting is Alpine climbing plus the fact that it is the antelope and not the guide who selects the traveler's route. It is mainly at this season, or during the winter when the animal haunts the nud. Alpine wooded region below the limits of perjetual snow, that the hunting is success till. The very circumstance of its loving the most secluded and inaccessible regions of the montains of middle Europe has led to the curious fact that though, by name at least once of the most familiar of animals, it is among those of which the habits are least accurately known. Outside presented limits the shooting of the chamois is permitted during the montain about.

The residents in South Portland not within the district sorved by the city water works are circulating a petition to the city water committee for an extension of mains into their neighborhood so that they may have the benefit of the city water. The people living in the locality reserved to have been subject to much inconvenience by reason of not having plonty of water and in convenience the growth of that part of the city has been materially retarded.

The petition is being generally signed and it is hoped the relief prayed for will be granted. The document is as follows.

(INCINIST) O Nov 8—Lost might at the regular monthly dinner of the military order of the Loy 31 legion ex-President Hayes, commander in chief of the order told the old time officers about it is first and has vote that gallant. Little Phil Sherid is easy to the first and the vote of his life. It was present said ten Hayes when Sherid in cast the first and list vote of his life. It was twenty four veins ago vesterd in I think. McClell in was the condidate on the one side and President Libroln on the other Sheridan had never voted as he was an army officer but he un ferstood that wider the laws of Ohio an Ohio Soldier could vote, and that there was to be somewhere in camp among the Ohio Soldiers politing piace. He soon learned that it was at in the adquarters so be came over the day before and talked about it.

New York special Nov 9 to Chicago Tribune

New York special "Not "o to Chicago Tribune There is a good deal of annus-ment over the Chamberlain Endicott affair among those famillar with the facts and with the dulnous social prospects of the new Cham-berium al tance in Fogland Contract to the die with the father. It applies to the son with the pecuniary profit. Detestation of the man was deepened by his own truculence toward the anstocracy in his early radical days. Bradlaugh himself was not more violent in his denunciation of Linglish social pietersion, and when to these assaults he lent an aspect of instead menace by his programme of land reform he became and was for years the most feared of the Linglish radicals. His extreme advocacy of Irish reform principles made him for a long period the idol of the home rulers. When at last he climbed by Mr Gladstone shelp into the cabinet although not into one of its highest places the atmosphere of the liberal party was gradually filled with a subite sen e of treachers and excessive am bition on the part of Brumingham wood turner's sen. He winted to be prime minister himself. His chines for leaving Mr Gladstone arose on the home rule bill and thin melanises are radical. The liberal spirit on the home rule bill and the more reference as a radical. The liberal spirit on the home rule bill was organized primarily by I ord Hartington on the Primary park conspiracy. He does not look upon marriage certificatis as men of domestic turn generally do. When years ago an attack was made by the liberal unionist press in a covert was upon the private character of a leading home rule politician. I how went up from the liberal press marticulate but perfectly anderstood and the truth about lord Hard inflow was in great danger of being bluntly told. The criticism of his epipo in it suffer d'a sudden a coumiete and a limit stop in ge. are now produced here. The rew factories with their main hands the railroads operated and building the ocean and river steamers the mines and the store of other non-producing industries which are in operation and being extended in the the builter market steady and sure or him who is willing to give it the proper care to achieve in the previous of the borthwist out it liene in the previous firm price higher than else where clack imas rounty only five miles distant from Fortland is more favorably situated than a in other county in the state for the dirty in in who has here the advantage of the metropolitan market at his very door. The railroads with their exorbitant charges and examined delay have no terrors for the dary man here as he finds it unnecessary to patronize them. The creamery has recently entered the field and has to trouble in making a good quality of butter which selts at reminier at that its system is dependent upon the farmer for its milk or cream. The same thing which keeps a farmer with tearty the cows from being a dairy man operates to prevent him from sunding cream to the factory. Air a haptberlain a first wife was Harriet kenrick drughter of a bourgeois of lagbuston a manufacturing situate of Bruning ham. She lived only two years after their marriage. She died just twenty fire years ago. I we seem the lived only two years after their marriage. She died just twenty fire years ago. I we seem the married her cousin Florence daughter of himothy kennick she died in 1875. Neither while his wife was they nor since has he been recognized in what is technically designated "sodiety" in hingland Minister Phelps can of course secure a presentation at court. But that will not open drawing room doors afterward except in a few cases where the entree is easy. Manu well informed are of the opinion that Miss Endicott will be butterly disappointed when she finds out that while Mr. Chamberla in is noted as a shifty politician he is totally without position. She can find plenty to do in the charities and sluins of birninghum. It contains sewing societies bible classes an art association in his rive and lyceum. Chamberlain has no London re idence. The wife of the present done personally electioners for her hus beand in the smut that smoke and the dirt of his inducts a social pretensions has yet done personally electioners for her hus beand in the smut that smoke and the dirt of his manufacturing constituence. Mr. Chamberlain will have no easy time securing his receicion. The women of lengthal are generally members of either the Primrose League (1913) or the Women's National Liberal Association. Many of them have spoken rep atedly during the last two years both in hall and at the hustings.

THE TEA INDUSTRY

How the Leaves Are Harvested and Made

There is but one species of tea plant recognized by hotanists writes a correspondent from Japan to the Baltimore American and the fineness of the marketable tea depends not upon the variety of the plant but on the thousand and one conditions of exposure of mosture of vigorous growth and kindly soil while the leaves are forming, and of skill and accuracy in the first stages of prepara-tion of the gethered leaves, and timely ripen-ing of the half developed flavors, which only dark brown and twisted internated with frequent twigs and stems and sometimes broken into grains, the teals sold by the native traders who wander from house to house and pay from 8 to 14 cents per jound B- them it is packed in boxes and sold to foreign merchants by samples. The market for ten fluctuates from day to day it has an adestimate and the inerchants and settlers offer prices.

The boxes of tea are emptied like so many crates of huy and the whole mass commingled, care being taken to prevent reaking or powdering After this mixing it is first winnowed or sifted, one or two pounds at each sifting, to free it from dust and grains, next the straws and coarse leaves are deftly removed upon small inclined tables when it is ready for its second tring.

This process involves delicate manipulations carefully adjusted heat and constant watchfulness. Suppose yourself suddenly idmitted to a lung building dumly lighted filled with rows of brick arches, under which are small fires, and in each arch set in the bricks is an iron pollished bowl two feet in diameter. There were 800 such fires and howls in the room we entered and in every howl was a bare hand and arm briskly stirring the hot tos in its second firing grains of which often fell upon the brond edge of the bowl or the brick arch itself. The air way heavy with aroma the heat and moise and stir and whirl of the in cereant motion appalled one. Old women with whish brushes constantly passed and repassed each row of bowls, urging greater swiftness in stirring and brushing back the truant crumbs which had been tosed upon the cooler edges of the bowl the heat although the air was stifting the women were decently attired the men, per contra wor only the one garment.

Suddrily a shout and swarms of boyling rims one every side. Plunging one hand into the nearest bowl, I found it disagreeably hot but not unbearable. The youngest worker changed from one hand to the other often showing great sensitiveness to the heat Although the air was stifting the women were decently at

The subticon to beat the time made by Sunggler was a predominant passion in the minds of many trainers and owners, but is splite of all their efforts he remained by stallion king for eight years. In 1584 Philas by Dictator trotted at Chicago on July 14 m 2 1334 and by roy al right of performance assumed the throne. The rise of Philas from the runks was rapid. With the exception of one minor race at half rails heat he made his fit tap; carnace on the turf is lass and in 1884 he had defeated the best horses on the turf and held the stalling champions in 1833 and he defeated Index. When the boys are learning their less

When the boys are learning then lessons or repeating them to their inaster they do so all at once in a loud voice and with a continual see-saw motion of the body, without which movement they seem to conceive it impossible that anything can be learned. The scene which this affords is extremely ludicrous to a European, particularly as the zeal of the learner is estimated by the loudness of his voice and the violence of his see saw, and hence, when mated by the loudness of his voice and the violence of his see any and hence, when conscious of the approach of a person whom the master or pupils wish to impress with a favorable epinion of their application and progress the mass in the school room, which may previously have sunk into a low hum rises abruptly to the elamorous uproar of many voices it seems that in reading all at once to the master the elder boys, in the school at large, are expected to give some attention to the others near them. The muster can not, in such a noise, distinguish the undyidual accuracy of each reader and his attention is therefore directed to observe that time is as nearly as may be kept by the voices, and, in some measure, in the motions also of the pupils. This object seems but poorly attained. This style of reading is most i matural. It is a drawling chant, intered in a very loud voice.

reading is most unatural. It is a drawling chant, interec in a very loud voice. In the East generally the tone of the voice is very high, even in common conversation, but in reading it is raised to streaming. Some Arabs desired a friend of mine to let them hear him read, writes a correspondent of the London Standard He complied on which they exclaimed You are not reading, you are talking! The fact however, is that except imong those of the learned professions, few of those who have professedly learned to read in the schools can or do exercise the read in the schools can or do exercise the read in the schools that of the decrease the acquirement in a ter life and the few who do remain actually qualitied to read with facility rarely do so without some stimulus incomparably stronger than would be required in this or perhaps, any Furopean country. After a residence of several country and proposed by the several s country After a residence of several pears among Mohammedan people, I do not recollect more than three instances in which I have seen persons quietly engaged in reading a book to themselves, all the actions of their ordinary life are much more exposed to public notice than can well be imagined in this country.

These facts and easily explained. Books

well be imagined in this country

These facts are easily explained Books are expensive articles of luxury in Mohammedan countries, and this is alone sufficient to account for much that we have stated Before the introduction of the art of printing the state of knowledge among the people was not more favorable in this country than it is in Persia now. There is also another less obvious circumstance, which would have great influence even were the minuscript books much more than the country of the minuscript books much more than the country of the co common and cleap than they are. This is the difficulty of reading manuscript. This difficulty should not be underrated This difficulty should not be underrated Even in this country most educated persons would require considerable stimulus to induce them to go through a manuscript volume. Those only whose duty it is to examine manuscripts and to prepare them for the press can describe the tediousness of the operation. It is not one of the least advantages of printing that it has tended to simplify the character employed in the preparation of books and to render it unform. This comparison very imperfectly illustrates our meaning for our manuitem this comparison very imperiectly illustrates our meaning for our manu scripts are far more legible to us than those of the East are to an Oriental Among ourselves many persons who can write shorthand with facility are unable to read it with ease an Oriental manuscript is a sort of shorthand which many more read it with east an Oriental manuscript is a sort of shorthand which many more persons are able to write than read. The words are abbreviated, as in shorthand by the omission of vowels, and when the words are desphered the want of punctuation renders it often difficult to discover at once the meaning of the phruses. When to this it is added that there are several different styles of writing besides the difference occasioned in the several manu scripts by the variety of individual hunds and flourishes it will be perceived that a person cannot read with faculity without more practice than the state of literature and knowledge encourages any considerable number of students to seek or enables them to obtain. A stranger is very hable to be deceived in estimating the competency of a Mohammedan to read. A very large part of common education consists in learning Mohammedan to read A very large part of common education consists in terming ly heart a cons derable portion of current literature, particularly of the Koran He is therefore, able to repeat by rote the most striking pussages of almost any of the very limited number of books which are likely to be placed before him He will turn over its leaves until he can find some passage with which he is acquainted, and will repeat it correctly saif from the book, but, if suddenly interrupted, he is after ward quite unable to indicate the part of the page at which the interruption took

In the case of the United States vs. J. B. Montgomery a suit brought by J. A. Munday a special agent of W. A. J. Sparks late commissioner of the general land office to set aside patents issued to D. Γ. Budd. Lee Hoffman and others for lands purchased under the timber set of lands. J. 1278. and subsequently sold to Mr Montgomery Judge Allyn in the district court of Wash ington territory at Vancouver yesterday delivered an opinion in which he reversed the entire action of Sparks and his agents and held that their interpretation of the law was erroneous Ms Montgomery has been endeavoring for the past two years to have these cases brought to trial but they have been postponed from term to term and decision

In statitum up the testimony Judge Allyn said. In this case of the United States against Montgomery in reference to what the district attorney calls the second proposition viz. that these were not offere I lands in my judgment from the fact of the authorized agent or the government having held them out as effected lands and having field them out its effered lands and the parties having a unchased then and it is government having a telen the more that of the government having a telen the more that of the government to so act and for the government still to keep he money would be very much in the nature of permitting the authorized egents of the government to per petrate a frand No offer having been made to feture the money I do not consider that question as having any particular weight in this case at all. In regard to what is called the third proposition viz that this property was not taken by the original applicant in his own interest but in the interest of this defendant there may be some suspicious circumstances but but in the interest of this defendant there may be some suppnious circumstances but auspicons zlone are in no event to be controlling in a question of fraud such as is alleged here and the facts must be established. The strongest witness in this dase is a man named Searles who gave some damaging testimons but Searles record in reference to these very lands was not o a kind to entitle his evidence. who gave some damaging testimons bat searles record in reference to these very lands was not o a kind to entitle his evidence to any particular credit. It was very clear that he had not dealt in good faith with the government, and it was very evident to my mind that Searles was anxious to have these lands thrown open for the pur pose of filing upon them himself, to get the timber that was on them. That being the case his interests his bigs and his animus were so evident that have given but very little consideration to his testimony as bearing upon this proposition. In fact I may say that a good many of the witnesses in their testimony directly or implicitly, or by something that was industry or implicitly, or hy something that was industry or implicitly, or hy something that was industry or implicitly, or hy something that was industry or and the main one in this case is the nature of these lands and the construction to be placed on the phraseology. Lands valuable chiefly for timber but unfit for on fivation occurring in the act under which they were taken. As the District Athorney very truly stated in his argument when the extlemes was submitted in this case at the last term. I very freely and frankly expressed my views as to the nature of these lands. What has been said since by both sades has tended to strengthen the views I then expressed. They were to the effect that my lifeas in reference to these tamber lands were a good deal more liberal than what the land office tlaimed as the proper construction of the act.

There were a large number of witnesses in this case who swear that the land is agricultural in its character. It is averred mopposition to their testimony that they want to get this property when thrown open to entry On the other hand it is said that an equally large number swore that it is unber land obleily, and that they are interested in getting a railroad there. Trou the testimon y in the case it would seem that they are interested in each of the land the testimon of one main if i in the case it would seem that they die with some means of communication with the out side world.

As to the agricultural or imiber character of the land the testimony of one main if remember correctly was that he spent nearly 3000 and had been upon his place ten years and now considered it worth about $1.000. From the testimony of nearly all these wit nesses it is evident that with the exception of scattered portions of bottom land prairie spenings or admething of that kind it is practically unpossible for a man to go there and settle as a homesteader and make any thing like a living during the term perhaps of his natural life. I have no doubt shoult.

As I understand it, the theory of the land offise upon which these shifts are trought is that the land is not find for cultivat on that it can be made to grow grass. Then there is no land but that can be made agicultural by the tire of fartilizers and proper systems of irrigation. Take for instance the desert lands of Celiforum hosensible man will say that they are unfit to?—cultivation. By the expenditure of a large amount of capital, and by irrigation they are made very fruit full. But untill for cultivation must mean something in a reasonable sense. There must be some medium line. I think unfit for cultivation means by the ordinary means adopted, considering the neighbor hood, the class of people and the purpose for which it is impended.

In that sense if the land although it might be subjected to agricultural con dition then it cannot be considered agricultural.

On the other hand because a peece of land is not in such a continue to that it can be

The state of the s

THE BUTTLE CONTROL OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PROP

dition then it cannot be considered agricultural condition then it cannot be considered agricultural.

On the other hand because a piece of land is not in such a concition that it can be plowed and enclosed within a fence so as to permit furming to begat at once it does not by any means follow that it is not agricultural. But it must mean susceptibility to agriculture by the ordinary means a home steader would be highly to have at band. I think a reasonable test in this case would be to ask the question whether any man from any part of this broad land desiring a homestead as a homesteader or as a furmer could listen impartially to the testimony in this case, and then go out upon any of the fand involved in this proceeding and at imput to make a homesteader or farm for the purpose of farming? I ceruinity do not be lister that he would. I do not believe that any practical man would take such desperate chances—look so much labor and difficulty in the face i would be very much inclined to the belief that he would go out with the idea of homesteading and primarily be actuated by the idea of not quiring the timber I twouldn't be for the purpose of cultivating timber lands. In those heavily timbered districts I venture the belief that the mujority of these home steaders are actuated largely in homesteading for the purpose of getting the timber and I don't believe that any man can listen impartially to this testi mony and not come to that conclusion.

impartially to this testimony and not come to that conclusion. As to the policy of the law we have nothing to do with that It is frue that the homestead and the timber go for nothing on the one theory while on the other the government would get $400. It is not good business policy but as I have said we have nothing to do with that at this time at least.

I believe, then that it is ractivally impossible for a settler to so, improve one of these quarter sections as in this case and make a living on it, and the evidence will justify me titly in that belief. He would be pretending to homestead shappy for the purpose of acquiring timber claims. That is certainly entirely wrong, and that idea and that construction of the law ought no longer to be purpaid. Judgment in this case and decree will be for the defendent.

will be for the defendant

I meant to have added that I have very thoroughly, at least in my own judgment studied this law, and I find that in applica tions at this kind the applicant must give a description of the land by legal subdivisions it must be posted for a riy days, it must be published in a newspaper, and if at the ex piration of sixty days satisfactory evidence has been presented to the register and duly published, that this law has been fully com pied with and that this land is chiefly vain able for its timber, and is not agricultural in any sense the application is entertained,

Capt Angerstein, when quizzed about the Eider's slow time takes it good naturedly. He thinks she does well considering the fact that she is the oldest vessed in the fleet Other ships have had their mishaps and detentions. There was a time when the Eider's movements were watched with as much interest as the Columbia and other steamers. She has not been idle hough not on the Portland and San Francisco route constants.

While absent from this route she has been pretty much every where on call including the Southern Victoria and even the Sand wich islands route. Her experience has been more varied than any vessel on this coast so that speed and elegance of appointments is not to be expected of ten years of wear and tear. ABSOLUTELY PURE. For quick raising, the Royal Baking Powder is superior to all other leavening agents It is absolutely pure and wholesome and of the highest leavening power I. is always uniform in strength and quality and never fails to make light, sweet, most palatable and nutritive food Bread, biscuits, mufflus, cake, etc raised with Royal Baking Powder may be eaten hot without distressing results to the most delicate digestive organs It will keep in any climate without deterioration Prof H A Mett, U S Government Chemist, after examining officially be principal baking powders of the country reported

' The Royal Baking Powder is absolutely pure, for I have so found it in many tests made both for that company and the United States Government.

'Because of the facilities that company have for obtaining perfectly pure cream of tartar and for other reasons dependent upon the proper preportions of the same, and the method o' its preparation, the Royal Baking Powder is undoubtedly the purest and most reliable baking powder offered to the public.
